

1. KLove Serves as a key source of my spiritual walk with Christ and is an invaluable resource to my family and me in the local community.
2. The effect of displacing this station in the local community could cause numerous disruptions and complaints to the FCC by local Christians who use this resource to spiritually uplift and serve their communities in a Christ like manner.
3. The unique service provided by KLove, being the only Contemporary Christian Station available to the eighth largest city in the U.S., proves to be a vital link to the spiritual walk and well-being of this community as well as an important resource tool to stay informed of local and national matters of importance to the thousands of Christians it serves in this area.
